Fa - ther George, en - treat_ Christ our God in our be - half, that His great mer - cy may be grant - ed un - to_ us.

He who is not alone, but is with others, cannot derive so much benefit from psalmody
 as from internal prayer; for the confusion of voices renders the psalms indistinct.

- St. John of the Ladder
