In all places
 and at all seasons
 you may sing with the mind.
 For whether you walk in the market place, or begin a journey, or sit down with your friends you may rouse up your mind or call out silently. So also Moses called out, and God heard him. If you are an artisan, you may sing sitting and working in your shop. If you are a soldier, or if you sit in judgment, you may do the very same. One may also sing without voice, the mind resounding inwardly.
 For we sing, not to men, but to God, who can hear our hearts and enter into the silences of our minds.

- St. John Chrysostom
